The Tree

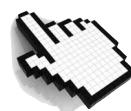

Fire raged there through the forest
A spruce cone hits the ground
It dropped its seeds and then was gone
but one, the dirt it found.

Lodging there within the earth
And there in time it grew
Water slipping through the veins
Survival, there were few

Pushing now up to the sky
There in time it stood
Now came I, an axe in hand the tree it was so good

I thought about its place in life
A time that shadows me
I smiled as the axe slipped down
Some beauty must be free.
